If you are a UK tax payer, the value of your gift can be increased by 25% under the Gift Aid scheme at no extra cost to you.

Yes, I am a UK tax payer and would like Cheltenham International Film Festival (charity no: 1183506) to treat all donations I make in the future as Gift Aid donations. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax and /or Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all my donations, it is my responsibility to pay the difference.

Your donations are eligible for the scheme if you pay enough Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax to cover the amount of tax that all charities and Community Amateur Sport Clubs you donate to will retain for each tax year (6 April to 5 April). Council tax and VAT do not count.

In order to claim Gift Aid we need you to fill in the fields below. Your details will be treated as confidential and will not be shared.

Please notify Cheltenham International Film Festival if you:

- Want to cancel this declaration
- Change your name or home address
- No longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains

Simon Pegg, Honorary Patron

Film festivals are a vital piece of the film ecosystem and their impact is evident across our culture. They provide a platform for new talent, attract new audiences, promote tourism and boost the local economy.

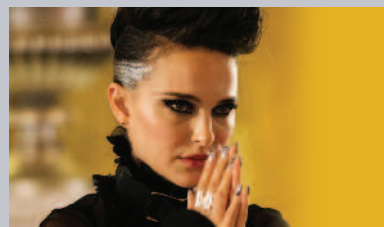

As a supporter of the Cheltenham International Film Festival, you will enable us to bring the best of international cinema from all over the world to Cheltenham and the surrounding area.

“The Cheltenham Film Festival has the potential to attract visitors locally, regionally and nationally. It’s another reason to visit Cheltenham. I’m looking forward to the town’s businesses reaping direct benefits.”

Kevan Blackadder,
Director of Cheltenham BID

Our Festival works with organisations such as Into Film which puts film at the heart of education for young people.

We organise Master Classes, Workshops and tickets for young people from all backgrounds to learn about film, to consider film as a career and to share in the collective viewing of films.
